

Season's Greetings!

BEST OF NY

The 8 Best Chanukah Celebrations In New York City

December 12, 2011 6:00 AM

Share this Like 7 Tweet 4 +1 0 Share 6 1 comment

In modern times, people celebrate Chanukah by lighting the menorah, spinning the dreidel for gelt and eating oil-rich foods such as potato pancakes—also known as latkes. Here are eight ways you can celebrate Chanukah in New York City—one for each night! By Carly Sitzer.

Chanukah Fever with Mama Doni Band

Sunday, Dec. 18, 3 PM

92nd Street Y

1395 Lexington Ave.
New York, NY
212-415-5470

92y.org

(credit: Mama Doni Band/Facebook)

Mama Doni Band's family-friendly, Hanukkah performance at the 92nd Street Y is one of the many events the Y will be hosting to celebrate Hanukkah this year. Every guest will be treated to not only a special Hanukkah present—which will include a CD, poster, song download and gelt—but also a great performance. Some of the band's themed songs include "La Vida Dreidel," "The Funky Gold Menorah" and "Latke Man!" Tickets are $15 a person.

Listen LIVE

It's Our Mission.
Quality Health Coverage

FIDELIS CARE®

Child Health Plus
Medicaid
Family Health Plus
Fidelis Medicare

TTY: 1-800-421-1238

1-888-FIDELIS

CBS LOCAL Offers™
CBS New York

DEAL OF THE DAY
50% Off at
Baconery

See Details

See more Deals for CBS New York

CBS New York on Facebook

Like 11,989