Review: Mama Doni's Chanukah Fever

Oy vey. We've caught the fever. The Chanukah Fever!

Singer/songwriter Doni Zasloff Thomas (aka Mama Doni) has created a fun and super catchy album, Chanukah Fever. Perfect for the eight nights of light and beyond, the CD is a big matzoh ball soup bowl of musical genres. We had a great a time listening to it, laughing and singing along with some of the more mishugina songs, (our personal favorite was the latin-inspired "La Vida Dreidel").

Jews and goyim alike will feel the Chanukah Fever. After listening to the CD, we were seriously craving some latkes with applesauce and jelly doughnuts.
