Wacky Macca-beats and funky gold menorahs light up 'Chanukah Fever'

Submitted by Robbie on November 18, 2009 - 8:40pm.

Hanukkah 2009 is almost here (starts Friday, December 11); time to dust off the menorah, toss the dreidel and eat lots and lots of fried foods. For us, it's also time to crank the holiday music and let loose. For the past few years, The LeeVeets have been in heavy rotation as we've lit the candles and recited the  blessings. But this year, we've got another new favorite, "Chanukah Fever," and it's got a seriously contagious energy. And you don't have to be Jewish to appreciate and enjoy this CD.

Mama Doni (award-winning Singer/Songwriter Doni Zasloff Thomas) brings her unique eclectic musical fun--nay, schtick--to the new full-length release "Chanukah Fever." Off-beat holiday humor is set to reggae, folk, classic rock, country, hip hop, klezmer, and theatrical stylings with songs about latkes, funky gold menorahs, la vida dreidels, bubbies and even Hanukkah Harry. Ten original songs that will get the kids singing, giggling, dancing and in the holiday spirit. It's a certainly a departure from the traditional fare, but in a wonderfully good way.

If you're in NYC, you can catch Mama Doni live on Sunday, November 22 for the CD release party. The CD officially releases on November 24th!
