Children need musical variety which is why I'm excited to open your ears to a couple of artistic musicians each with their own knack for tugging at a child's beating heart.

Deborah Poppink: DidiPop Goes to Hawaii

Deborah Poppink (aka DidiPop) has put together a blend of imaginative pieces all taking you on a journey to beautiful Hawaii. An award winning songwriter and performer, Deborah Poppink can't help but captivate her listeners with upbeat melodies and magical lyrics.

While I was listening to this CD, I was surprised at how many pictures were popping into my brain. Her latest CD, DidiPop Goes to Hawaii, is inspired by Deborah's family visits to the Aloha state. Starting off on the plane ride with the song Wowie Gazowie, DidiPop leads her listeners on a Hawaiian adventure. Stop off at the dreamy beaches in Kapalua Bay and then enjoy a Hula (The Keiki Hula). While I may not be able to hop on a plane and get to Hawaii myself, listening to this CD brings back some wonderful memories of my travels there years ago.

DidiPop Goes to Hawaii is available at didipop.com and iTunes. You can also learn more at www.didipop.com.

Mama Doni: Chanukah Fever

Now that I'm back from Hawaii, it's time to pop in some Chanukah tunes. Mama Doni is a flavorful musician that brings traditional Jewish music to an entirely new level. She has a keen ear for mixing together Latin, disco, reggae, rock, and klezmer to create colorful tunes for her audience.

Her latest album, Chanukah Fever is eclectic, unpredictable and filled with humor. With songs such as Latke Man and The Legend of Sour Cream vs. Applesauce, you will eagerly listen to her quirky style of music. She's like having the cool, fascinating teacher in school. Every song has a real lesson and she presents it in a way that is captivating and very cool.

Chanukah Fever is available from Amazon, iTunes, Barnes and Noble and FYE.com. Check out her website at www.mamadoni.com.

Tidbit of the Day: Looking for some sweet stocking stuffers? Consider letting DidiPop or Mama Doni into your home this holiday season.
