KIWI Magazine Review:

Challah!!

Mama Doni is releasing yet another catchy-kitschy CD which rocks, raps, and rolics. The lyrics are creative, original, and funny but the range of rhythms will have everyone dancing, laughing, and challah-ing at the top of their lungs.

If you're not Jewish, Mama Doni is the go-to Jew for learning common and useful Yiddish words like Fahklemp (upset, down), Bubbe (grandmom), Mishegas (insanity), and Mishpocha (family). Not only are the words fun to say, they just beg for their own songs and Mama Doni delivers. It gives this shtick-less shikse chutzpah envy.

The Bat Mitzvah song could have its own reality-show spin-off called the Brat Mitzvah (maybe the Hebrew-ha-ha?). "No one is exempt from feeling Fahklemp," so give this CD a listen, and your mood will soar, your toes will tap, your tuches will shake, and you'll be Shabbat shabooming like it's your job.

Product Information:

Shabbat Shaboom marks the first Mama Doni CD to showcase the entire Mama Doni Band. Says Doni, "Shabbat Shaboom is really an evolution for us. It's a little less shticky than my previous CDs. Don't get me wrong, it's still fun! But this album has a slightly different vibe. It's more sophisticated musically than my earlier work, a bit more soulful, you might say."

Immersed in Jewish life and music since childhood, Doni Zasloff Thomas attended Jewish day schools, followed by Brandeis University and NYU, where she earned a degree in Educational Theatre. Pursuing a career in children's media and marketing, Doni was creative director for an award winning, pioneering children's media company for more than seven years.
